

13,118 "Help Wanted" advertisements were printed in THE WORLD during November. Thousands thus found employment. Reach Help-Wanters through THE WORLD. : : : : 10 Words, 10 Cents.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1894.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

13,280 "House, Room and Apartment" advertisements were printed in THE WORLD in November. They found thousands of tenants. Reach Renters through THE WORLD. : : : : 14 Words, 30 Cents.

PRICE ONE CENT.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

WHO GOT ALL THE MONEY?

Lexow Committee Has Yet to Solve the Great Corruption Fund Mystery.

Session Resumed To-Day.

Rumors of More Sensations to Be Sprung Are in Active Circulation.

FATHER DUCY NOT PRESENT.

Belief Expressed that He Has Received Another Warning from the Archbishop.

After a recess of five days the Senate Committee resumed its investigation of the Police Department this morning in Part I. of the Superior Court.

Only two weeks now remain for the Committee to complete its work for the year, as Chairman Lexow says there will be no hearings during the holidays, and a vast amount of testimony must be taken during this brief interval if all the witnesses who have been summoned already, or who are expected to be called, are given an opportunity to be heard.

It was stated this morning that more than thirty persons had been subpoenaed for the session to-day, and that among them was the notorious Evelyn Bell, for many years proprietor of a vicious resort in the Tenderloin, and who has of late been a patient at the Keeley Institute, in Orange, N. J. She was not visible, however, during the early part of the morning, when the other witnesses and the usual crowd of spectators were gathering.

Talk of Going Higher.

Although both Chairman Lexow and the counsel for the Committee deny that any definite plans have been made to give Sub. Byrne a hearing, it was the prevailing impression this morning that the testimony of the next few days would furnish as many strutting and sensational disclosures as any of the hearings in the past, and that it would affect more directly the higher police officials of the city than anything which has yet brought out.

It was impossible, however, to obtain any positive information from the counsel for the Committee's counsel, who have persistently refused to give the names of any of the witnesses they propose to examine until they are called to the stand.

As yet very little evidence has been adduced showing conclusively where the enormous corruption fund raised every year by means of the various "kick-backs" and "bribe" money has ultimately been spent.

Who Were the Beneficiaries?

Those who have been following the progress of the investigation closely expect Mr. Gott to bring out some definite facts in regard to the beneficiaries of this fund during the closing sessions of the year, and for this reason the public interest in the hearings is increasing instead of diminishing.

When Chairman Lexow came in to-day he hailed himself with a big batch of papers which he said were the result of a committee adjourned last Thursday.

"In regard to our plans for the remainder of the month and for the coming year," he said to an "Evening World" reporter, "he said that nothing definite has yet been decided upon."

Executive Session to Be Called.

"Some time during the coming week we expect to hold an executive session and go over the whole ground. We will then determine what course shall be pursued with regard to an extension of the powers of the Committee."

"I hardly think, however, that after the first of the year we will have any time to devote to the investigation, as our duties at Albany will compel us to remain there most of the time."

A large amount of documentary evidence will be presented, which will be embodied in the Committee's report to the Legislature. One of the most important appointments under Commissioner McCall and other members of the Board are now being copied for that purpose.

Suggestions for Framing Laws.

"What we want now," he said, "is testimony that will strengthen the evidence already before the Committee, and suggest the best means of framing laws which will tend to remedy the existing abuses."

A large amount of documentary evidence will be presented, which will be embodied in the Committee's report to the Legislature. One of the most important appointments under Commissioner McCall and other members of the Board are now being copied for that purpose.

Lawyer Moss, who did not have an opportunity to take an examination of the Police Pension system last week, had evidently prepared himself for a field day, for among the papers which he presented was a formidable array of sub-penaeas for the force, Sergeants, Roundmen, Patrolmen, and other police officers, and the names of those who have been relieved on pensions after twenty years' service, many of whom had obtained lucrative positions in business.

Mrs. Sallade a Spectator.

Mrs. Mary Sallade, who has made herself famous by waging war against disorderly resorts in the Tenderloin, particularly in West Twenty-fourth street, was a spectator of the proceedings this morning. Several women were seen in the audience, and among them was Mrs. Hermann, a sister of Mrs. Matilda Hermann, and who the latter testified succeeded to the business in West Third street after she had been driven out by police persecution. Another was of the Annie Miller, the keeper of a disreputable house in West Third street.

No Sign of Father Ducy.

Father Ducy, who is usually one of the early comers, had not made his appearance at 11.30 o'clock, and his absence caused considerable comment, for it was said that within the last few days he has received a third letter from Archbishop Corrigan, forbidding him to attend the hearings of the Lexow Committee.

WILLIAM LAW LEARNED.

The Chairman of the Commission, signer of the report condemning Brockway and the Board of Managers, who for a great many years sat on the Supreme Court Bench as the Presiding Justice of the Third Department.

MR. SHAFER OBJECTS.

Dilatory Tactics Adopted at the Start of Stephenson's Trial.

Fellows Presents the Charges of Bribery Against the Ex. Policeman.

Clerk Delamater Called to Produce the Headquarters Record.

The trial of ex-Police Capt. John T. Stephenson began in earnest this morning, the full jury having been secured after a long day of examining witnesses.

Lawyer Ira Shafer and his client were early in court, and with them came Patrolman Joseph Weinberg, who has been accused by a witness in the Lexow proceedings. Following them were a squad of policemen with a small library of police records.

District-Attorney Fellows and his assistants, Messrs. McIntyre and Lindsay, arrived a moment later.

At the opening of court Lawyer Shafer took occasion to offer a left-handed apology for a remark he made yesterday regarding Col. Fellows' leaving "boys" in charge of the case while he went to dinner.

Mr. McIntyre resented the remark, and said that Mr. Shafer might be sorry before the trial was finished for calling "boys" to the stand.

This morning Mr. Shafer said that his remarks must have been misunderstood, for he certainly meant no reflection upon the District-Attorney or any one in his office. This peace was restored temporarily.

At the opening of court, Col. Fellows called attention to the fact that at the time of the alleged bribery Stephenson was a police captain; that it was his duty to enforce the laws and not to neglect them; that he did not have any inclination or through bribery, as he called the act.

The testimony of Martin N. Edwards, a fruit dealer, of 193 Duane street, the alleged bribe payer, was given, and his goods he unloaded on the sidewalk in front of his store, thereby obstructing the sidewalk contrary to law.

Col. Fellows said that for a compensation, Capt. Stephenson agreed to, and did perform, the following services:

Mr. Shafer interrupted Col. Fellows in the middle of his statement, and said that he had a copy of the police rules and regulations, which he would read to the jury, and that he would also read to them a list of the names of the police captains who were relieved on pensions after twenty years' service, and that he would also read to them a list of the names of the police captains who were relieved on pensions after twenty years' service, and that he would also read to them a list of the names of the police captains who were relieved on pensions after twenty years' service.

STATEN ISLAND TO HARLEM.

Proposed Trolley Line to Connect with Ferry and Cable Road.

Papers were sent to Albany yesterday for the incorporation of the Staten Island Electric Railroad Company.

This company has planned to run a trolley road twenty miles long through Staten Island, to connect with the Staten Island ferry, the company will have $1,250,000 capital, and numbers among its incorporators Gen. S. L. Thomas and T. F. Ryan, both of whom are directors in the Staten Island Ferry Company.

It is believed that the new plan is a scheme to broaden the cable road, and to place itself in a position to dislodge the cable car, which it will then traffic by paying one-third its expenses.

THEY CALL IT A SHUT-DOWN.

Contractors Say There is No Work for the Tailors.

Two hundred Brotherhood tailors were added to-day to the 1,500 already locked out by the Contractors' Association.

While the Brotherhood men persist in declaring this movement of the contractors a lockout, the latter insist that it is a shut-down.

The Contractors' Association has 125 of its members posted as pickets near the wholesale clothing houses in Broadway, watching to see if any of their Association contractors indicates plainly that they have acted treacherously, and the tailors will not accordingly hold over to the latter of their bond and agreement, binding them to live up to the weekly wage system and the last hour workday.

New Move Against Standard Oil.

WACO, Tex., Dec. 11.—The prosecution of the Standard Oil Trust and Water-Pipe Oil Company in Texas, which was begun last week, has been continued to-day. The case is being heard by Judge J. C. Johnson, who is expected to render a verdict in favor of the Standard Oil Company.

Kansas City Bonds Sold.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 11.—Negotiations were closed yesterday whereby the city of $2,000,000 bonds for the purchase of the property of the National Waterworks Company were sold to James A. Blair & Co. The price was $100.

IF NOT SEELY, WHO?

Bank Officials Hope He Is the Man Arrested in Chicago.

Lawyer Angel and Inspector McLaughlin Rather Think Not.

An Indictment Found by the United States Grand Jury.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—The prisoner supposed to be Samuel C. Seely, the bookkeeper who robbed the New York Shoe and Leather Bank of $354,000, was as uncommunicative to-day as when taken into custody last night.

All night he sat erect and defiant in the private office of Inspector Shea, and morning found him not a whit less defiant.

Through the night detectives and officers have taken turns at a rigid examination, but all were unsuccessful.

The prisoner insists that his name is Frank J. Daly.

To-day, after finding their questioning unavailing, the officers tried another tack, and, with seeming doubt as to his identity, offered the suspect to any luxuries he might wish.

"I have no friends here," said the prisoner. "I want no assistance. I shall stay here until I discover your mistake and let me go."

My name is Dale, I never heard of Seely except through the papers, and now I won't talk any more. And he did not.

Reporters came in droves and vainly sought interviews, newspaper artists flocked into the little office and made all sorts of sketches, and now and then a detective tried his hand at cross-examination, but through it all the suspect sat unmoved, and calmly awaited the approach of the night.

The police were confident to-day that the man was Seely, and so wired to New York, but they confess themselves puzzled by the man's indifference.

President Crane, of the Shoe and Leather Bank, will start for Chicago at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of identifying the man supposed to be Seely.

The reported arrest in Chicago last night of Bookkeeper Samuel C. Seely, who with Lawyer Frederick W. Baker robbed the Shoe and Leather National Bank of $354,000, has revived all the sensational interest in the case to-day. The man in the custody of the Chicago police is reported by despatches to "The World" to bear a striking resemblance to the fugitive bookkeeper. Some of the persons most interested in his thefts and some of the police officers who were on duty at the time of the robbery in New York, but they confess themselves puzzled by the man's indifference.

THE LAST SURVIVORS.

"Brace up, Brook, old boy! You and I've travelled a long ways together, and the end can't be far off."

"Right you are, Gov.; these are the times when fellows like us must hang together. I'm wid ye."

missing bookkeeper, officers will be sent to Chicago with requisition papers to bring him back.

The man arrested in Chicago described himself as "Frank J. Dale." He bears a remarkable resemblance to the fugitive bookkeeper, and the Chicago police believe he is Seely. He was arrested in a Chicago boarding-house upon information furnished by Henry E. McFarland, who is probably an amateur detective.

Chicago saloon, and says he frequented race tracks with "Dale," or Seely. McFarland declares that he is the man who secured the $5,000 reward for the apprehension of the fugitive, and he informed the police.

The suspect took his arrest coolly. He denied that he was Seely, but refused to give any information about himself. McFarland says that he is Seely, but that he is not the man who was arrested in New York.

The only things found on the person of the man under arrest that lends any color to the theory that he is Seely, is a Pullman car ticket dated the day he was arrested, and a letter from Jersey City, to "W. H." (probably Washington or Wheeling).

STOCKS OPENED FIRMER.

Then a Bear Raid Caused a Decline—Sugar Less Active.

A firmer tone was imparted to speculation at the Stock Exchange this morning by the receipt of higher quotations from London, and by the fact that all the roads reporting for the first week of December show a gain, as compared with the earnings for the corresponding week last year.

The St. Paul Company's statement for the second week of the month shows receipts of $276,318, a decrease of only $27,971, as compared with 1993.

The early advances in prices were equal to 1-4 to 5-8 per cent, outside of the St. Paul, which rose 1-8 to 2-14. Subsequently the bears rallied the list and a decline of 1-4 to 5-8 per cent.

The stock opened 1-3 lower at 104-14, on reports that the surface lines continue to make serious inroads upon the receipts of the Company.

There was decidedly less activity in Sugar. The stock opened 1-3 lower at 34-34, and reacted to 30-3-8. The traders are waiting to see what the next move of the market will be.

The market for refined sugar is made for the purpose of enabling some one to accumulate a line of stock at low figures.

The Paul ranged from 58 1-4 to 58 5-8; Rock Island, 61 3-4 to 61 7-8; Burlington, 71 1-2 to 72; Northern, 41 1-2 to 41 3-4; Erie, 9 3-4 to 10 1-8, and Chicago Gas, 71 3-4 to 72 1-4.

THEY IGNORE THE A. A. U.

Seventy-first Regiment Athletics Follow the Example of the Seventh.

The Seventy-first Regiment is standing by the Seventh in its fight with the A. A. U., and great interest is manifested in the athletic games of the Seventy-first Regiment A. A., which are to take place at the splendid new armory of the regiment on Saturday, Dec. 15.

There is every indication of success, as the members of the Seventy-first are like those of the Seventh, more loyal to their regiment than to the A. A. U., and the entry list is full to overflowing.

The referee will be Lieut. W. G. Schuyler, Seventh Regiment, and nearly all the other officials will be Seventh Regiment men.

The list of events are all scratch competitions, and include an invitation relay race, open to members of the National Guard.

"Brace up, Brook, old boy! You and I've travelled a long ways together, and the end can't be far off."

"Right you are, Gov.; these are the times when fellows like us must hang together. I'm wid ye."

A YOUTHFUL HIGHWAYMAN.

Knocked Down a Boy and Came Near Killing Him.

Seven-year-old John Purcell, who lives with his mother at 98 Tillary street, Brooklyn, is seriously ill from concussion of the brain, received in a fight with an unknown juvenile highwayman, who knocked him down in broad daylight and attempted to rob him of five cents. The boy is in the Homeopathic Hospital. The doctors this morning said while his condition is dangerous, careful attention might save his life.

The boy is unconscious, and the police have been unable to get an accurate description of the youngster who assaulted him. The boy got five cents from his mother yesterday and went out to buy candy. He came home a few minutes later and told his mother he had been knocked down by a colored boy, who tried to rob him of his money.

John, "but while we were tussling he struck my head against the sidewalk. I saw my head must be cut."

Mrs. Purcell found no marks upon it. Half an hour later she sent him on an errand. In a short time a policeman informed her the boy had been taken ill on Hudson avenue and carried into a store.

Ambulance Surgeon Schall discovered that the youngster had been seriously injured. At noon to-day he was resting easily.

DIED OF BLOOD POISONING.

Horrible Death of a Yale Senior from a Tiny Pimple.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Dec. 11.—Lawrence W. Hooker, aged twenty, a senior in the Yale Law School, died this morning from blood poisoning. Friday he complained to his roommate that a pimple on his hip bothered him very much.

The next day the pimple became more painful, and he went to a local physician, who covered it with coat plaster and told the young man he would be all right in a few days.

The trouble increased, however, and he was sent to the Yale Infirmary, where yesterday an incision was made. The trouble then took on a horrible aspect, as his face became more and more rapidly worse, until his death this morning.

Hooker was a grandnephew of the late Prof. W. D. Whitney, the noted linguist and authority in Sanskrit, and a son of John B. Hooker, of Los Angeles, Cal.

NEW ORLEANS SUITS JIM.

Corbett Will Fight Jim There if It Becomes Necessary.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Dec. 11.—"I would just as lief fight in New Orleans, if my battle with Fitzsimmons cannot take place at Jacksonville," was Champion James J. Corbett's reply to a question on the subject last night.

"This is the first time I have been asked about this matter of locality," he continued. "I have naturally a kindly feeling towards New Orleans, my career being started there by my fight with Kilrain, and having won the championship in that city by defeating Sullivan."

"The fight might have taken place there at first had the Olympic Club treated me right."

MUST DECLARE YOUR DRAW.

Interesting Point Decided in a Fictitious Game of Poker.

In a game of poker between J. H. Fisher and A. K. Chesbrough at Fire Island in the Summer of 1890 the question arose as to whether one player has the right to ask, after the deal and before any bets are made, how many cards another one drew.

EXTRA. 2 O'CLOCK.

FLOWER IS HIS HELPER.

The Governor Again Sustains Brockway in His Paddling.

Commissioners Disagree.

Judge Learned Reports that the Acts of Cruelty Are Frequent.

DEYO AND FLINT FOR BROCKWAY.

Even the Governor Admits that "Mistakes" Have Been Made.

Looking at all the proof, I feel satisfied that the punishments have been excessive in number and to severity, and therefore have been cruel. (From Judge Learned's report.)

The investigation has clearly proved that the General Superintendent of the State Reformatory has been guilty of numerous acts of injustice, inhumanity and cruelty to the inmates of the institution confided by the Board of Managers to his absolute control, and that his tendency towards such injustice, inhumanity and cruelty is continually increasing. (State Board of Charities' Report.)

It now remains with you, the Governor, to say whether these punishments shall continue. Respectfully submitted, WILLIAM L. LEARNED, One of the Commissioners.

MRS. NAVARRO RECOVERING.

Her Husband Denies Reports that She is in a Dangerous Condition.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The sensational reports circulated in regard to the condition of Mrs. Mary Anderson-Navarro, of Cayuga, have been reapointed general managers of the Elmira Reformatory by Gov. Flower.

Mr. F. Antonio Navarro, her husband, said at 1 o'clock this afternoon that Mrs. Navarro was progressing very favorably.

The first investigation made by the State Board of Charities resulted in a unanimous verdict that The World's charges were true; that Brockway was in fact cruel and inhuman in the treatment of the prisoners under his care.

That board, serving without salary and from purely philanthropic motives, consisted of William R. Stewart, Dr. Stephen Smith and Mrs. Beekman De Feyster, of this city; Edward H. Litchfield, Mayor of the City of New York; J. H. Van Antwerp and Edward W. Foster, of Albany; Robert McCarthy, of Syracuse; Peter Walrath, of Chittenango; Dr. E. V. Stoddard, of Rochester, and William P. Lettsworth, of Buffalo.

When these gentlemen reported the cruel practices in vogue in the Elmira Reformatory Gov. Flower was asked to remove Brockway. He answered that he had not the power; that the Board of Managers of the reformatory alone could do that. These managers had championed Brockway from the start, and moved for perked to demand that they should remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account of his proved cruelty and inhumanity. They would not act, and then the Governor was asked to remove them for permitting Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not do that, and the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory was asked to remove Brockway on account